WHO GOT THE $25,000

Irvine Strikes a Mysterious $25,000 for "Detective Service."

Tom Costigan Helps Them to Find Out Where the License Money Go.

John J. McDonough, the Cashier of the Excise Board for the past year, was the first witness to-day before the Fawcett investigating committee.

He is a clean little man, with bright black eyes, short iron-gray hair and a brilliant mustache. He said he lived at 445 East Forty-sixth street, was a member of Tammany Hall and had been appointed Cashier of the Board of Excise at the recommendation of the Twenty-second District General Committee.

He had been Cashier of the Second Avenue Railway Company prior to his political appointment.

"My salary as Cashier is $3,000, and I have an assistant, A. E. Parkhurst, at $1,800 a year," said the witness in response to a question from Inquirer Irvine.

"What are your duties?"

"I enter all receipts for licenses in my cash book and deposit in the German Exchange Bank."

"Yours is a strictly cash business, and each entry is made on one line, is it not?"

"Yes, sir."

"Now tell me how many entries you make on average each day?"

"It varies. In the busy season there are sometimes as high as 175. During the dull season there are sometimes as few as fifteen."

"Do you think two persons are necessary to perform this work?"

"Yes, sir; so that when the Cashier is absent by sickness or for any other cause there will be some responsible person under bonds to perform the duties."

John McDonough said his bond was for $25,000, and that it was given by Edward C. Sheehy and Richard J. Mahoney, who were his bondsmen, but he did not know whether Mr. Mahoney had large lifetime contracts with the city or not. The bond of the assistant cashier is $10,000.

To Lawyer Levitt Mr. McDonough stated that besides entering the receipts he made a daily statement of the receipts to the Chief Inspector and a daily return of receipts to the Treasurer, which is verified by the Controller for deposit in the bank next day.

Once a month the accumulated money in bank is turned out to the City Chamberlain and a certificate and statement is filed with the Controller.

Isaac B. Barrett, chief bookkeeper to the Controller, next testified to what was done with the accounts of the Excise Board. He reported to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The bulk of the receipts of the Excise Department is paid to the City Chamberlain, and the balance of the receipts of the Department, rent of office and other expenses are paid to the City Chamberlain for the use of the City.
